

COMMENTS ON ARTICLES

Dear Mr. Ewart, In my entire journalistic career, I have rarely seen writing as excellent as yours. Your ideas are marshaled in such a way that readers erudite and otherwise can easily understand them. We are proud to recommend such outstanding work! Judi McLeod, CFP editor

Once again Ron, your writing gives me chills. Spot On!

Ron, this is masterful and a "call to arms" for everyone, here and abroad, who share our love and devotion to the United States of America and all she has stood for in the past and into the present.

Excellent work! Looking forward to reading more from you in the near future!

Thanks for a reminder that freedom isn't free and that we are constantly in jeopardy of losing it...

Excellent, especially the way you framed it. Certainly gives one cause to "think".

Sir, I have been enlightened and informed by your writings and I appreciate all the great strides you continue to take to keep "us" informed. Please keep up the excellent analysis and forthwith examples for all American's to follow...if they only would!

>Very well said, I believe that you speak for more Americans than anyone could possibly imagine.

I don't, as a rule, post comments. Yours, however, is a very obvious exception to my rule. Ron, this was one of the finest, most positive, uplifting pieces of linguistic art I've encountered in many of a year. Would that all Americans could read it. My sincere thanks....

Thank you so very much for reminding us that there are real Americans who truly love our country, and we can't give up. THIS is hope.

Ron, Thank you so much. This should be required reading for all of our school age, children. This should stir, at least some action within those that, for the most part, are complacent.

Thank you, Ron. We certainly do appreciate your efforts on behalf of all of us here in America, property owners or not.

This is one of the most positive, uplifting commentaries that I have read in a very long time. You've said it all; there's nothing left to be said. Thank you for reminding us all of what is truly important to hold on to as citizens of the United States of America.

Thank you for putting into words what I passionately feel in my heart. I'm no longer staying silent for the sake of not upsetting anyone (I'll be polite, but not silent). This is the greatest country God has given to man. I think the tea parties are only the beginning. God bless you.

Ron, this is a wonderfully articulate and intelligent work I have seen in a long time. The hardest thing for me to accept is that so many citizens in this great country of ours seem to either be deaf and blind to the truth or just too lazy and apathetic to heed the signs around them.

This work is so right on the money it isn't funny. We The People do need to get together on one issue and bring this country back to the ways our Founding fathers intended it to be run, with freedom, liberty, justice for all.

We are in our 70's, live in a small town and own 80 acres. I never thought about the intrusion of the government. I came from an era when we didn't lock doors, left the car doors open, walked to school, took off for the day with our friends on bikes and everyone pretty much minded their own business and we were all very happy.

Thank you for the journalistic and investigative writing that you do to keep us all informed of the movings and shakings going on in this great country of ours which we so desperately need to be made aware of. A few short years ago it would have been hard to imagine that events could spiral out of hand so quickly. Keep up all the good work and please be encouraged that there are many of us around the country who feel just like you do about adhering to our sovereign Declaration of Independence, the Constitution of the United States and the Bill of Rights. May God bless you and yours...

Very informative Ron. The American people need to understand how our government is supposed to function, and to recognize when either has exceeded its authority.

Another excellent literary masterpiece. We see the United States destroyed each time our legislators write a bill.

*You are spot on....BUT....FIRST AND FOREMOST, GOOD PEOPLE MUST GET INVOLVED!!!!!!*

You hit the nail on the head. Really outstanding!

Truer words were never spoken than your statement: " Wealthy, special interest groups (mega corporations, unions, socialists, environmentalists, money changers and the international elite, etc.), continue their incessant lobbying of American lawmakers for a never-ending list of favors, which are granted by the spineless traitors that occupy the seats of power, at every level of our government.

You make it all crystal clear.

You have a great ability to bring to light this dark scheme of government control.

Been waiting a long time to see it written out so succinctly.

You are perfectly on point.

Each time I read Mr. Ewart's articles, I feel myself a kind of litmus test to his ideas: the long torturous history of my Russia confirms his 100% truth. Even a few years (1917-1920) of the Russian silent majority's treason toward God, Honor, Honesty were quite enough to turn the formerly hopeful road of my great country into a hopeless decline to the Stalin's Empire of Evil. I do believe that the Americans with their traditional loyalty to freedom would be much more successful in shaking off all the costly left temptations of the recent unscrupulous times.

Bravo! Spoken like a true Patriot Mr. Ewart. You get em Brother, tell it like it is. This is a wonderfully thought out missive, I am saving this to my Totally Awesome folder so I can be inspired when needs be. Thank you Mr. Ewart for being such a great American, you inspire and enlighten me.

Mr. Ewart you speak straight and to the point.

Hear, Hear! Great read, Ron! Truer words have never been spoken!
